

Carrie Yamato
[REDACTED]
Palos Verdes Estates, CA [REDACTED]

June 4, 2005

Remodeling my master bedroom and bathroom was a project I put off for almost two years. I feared the mess, making decisions and not being able to get the look I wanted within my budget. All my fears disappeared when I started working with Velvet Hammerschmidt

From the first meeting, Velvet listened to what I wanted, and approached the project in a very organized and time-efficient manner. As we moved forward, her creativity, resourcefulness and design ideas matched, if not exceeded her professionalism.

Velvet has a great vision for projects and knows how to capture the latest looks. But she never forces her taste on her clients. She always gave me several options that would work within my budget. I found out that the more I worked with her, the more I relied on and trusted her. For example, when she suggested a vinyl wall covering behind the vanity, I was a little wary because I had never seen anything like it. But I went with her recommendation, and I couldn't be happier. When people see the bathroom, the wall covering is the most-talked-about feature in the room.

Velvet takes pride in her projects and cares about her clients. These qualities, plus her knack for putting things together, are what set her apart from others in her field. It has been a pleasure working with Velvet and her assistant Danielle. I look forward to more projects with Velvet Hammerschmidt Design.

Carrie Yamato